CHINGUACOUSY W. CON. 1 LOT 17 100 ac. 1845

anahdermucky, Lifesive Janet Brown
IN 1833 DAVID CATION LEFT SCOTLAND WITH HIS WIFE AND THREE SMALL CHILDREN FOR CANADA. THEY ENCOUNTERED SEVERE STORMS DURING THE CROSSING WHICH REQUIRED SIXTY-SIX DAYS.

ALL THEY KNEW OF THE COUNTRY WAS THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN A LETTER BELONGING TO A FRIEND WHOSE SISTER, A MRS. TAYLOR, WAS LIVING IN CHINGUACOUSY. SOMEWHERE BETWEEN HAMILTON AND OAKVILLE, THE CATION FAMILY WERE PUT OFF THE BOAT ALONG WITH SOME MEMBERS OF THE WILKIE FAMILY, RELATIVES OF THE NOTED MISSIONARY, JOHN WILKIE. HERE THEY CAMPED AS BEST THEY COULD, BUT THERE WAS NO ONE TO TELL THEM WHERE CHINGUACOUSY WAS.

ONE DAY, HOWEVER, A MAN CAME ALONG AND DAVID CATION SHOWED HIM THE LETTER as my father IN HIS POSSESSION. THE MAN INFORMED THEM THAT CHINGUACOUSY WAS NOT FAR DISTANT AND GAVE THE NECESSARY DIRECTIONS. NEXT MORNING DAVID CATION SET OUT TO FIND MR. AND MRS. TAYLOR. FINALLY HE ARRIVED AT THE SMALL LOG CABIN OF THE TAYLOR FAMILY.

MR. JOHN ELLIOTT OF BRAMPTON ASSISTED HIM TO SELECT A FARM AND AFTER ABOUT THREE WEEKS WITH AN OX AND WHAT RESEMBLED A STONEBOAT, HE WENT BACK AND BROUGHT HIS FAMILY TO THE TAYLOR HOME WHERE THEY REMAINED ALL THAT SUMMER.

BY THE AUTUMN, HOWEVER, DAVID CATION WAS SETTLED ON ONE HUNDRED ACRES OF LOT 17 CON. 2 IN THE TOWNSHIP OF CHINGUACOUSY, WEST OF HURONTARIO STREET, AND HERE HAD ERECTED THEIR FIRST HOME IN CANADA. THE CABIN HAD A LARGE FIREPLACE WHERE THE POT WAS HUNG FOR BOILING; THERE WAS ALSO A DUTCH OVEN FOR BAKING, WHICH CONSISTED OF A METAL POT AND A LID, AND IN THIS ALL THEIR BREAD WAS BAKED. THEY LIVED THE LIFE OF THE EARLY PIONEER ENDURING CHEERFULLY THE HARDSHIPS AND, GRADUALLY THE FAMILY PROSPERED AND WERE ABLE TO BUY AND CLEAR MORE LAND, ALSO INCREASE THEIR STOCK OF ANIMALS, AND IMPROVE THE FARM BUILDINGS.

IN THE YEAR 1852, DAVID CATION MET A SUDDEN DEATH. HAY WAS BEING HAULED INTO THE BARN WHEN A STORM AROSE AND MR. CATION WHILE ENTERING THE BARN DOORS WITH HIS TWO SONS, WAS INSTANTLY KILLED BY A BOLT OF LIGHTNING; THE TWO SONS WERE NOT INJURED. THE WIFE OF DAVID CATION LIVED FOR MANY YEARS IN THE COMFORTABLE HOME WITH HER FAMILY AND GRADUALLY HER FAMILY SETTLED ON LAND IN CHINGUACOUSY QUITE CLOSE TO THE HOMESTEAD. TODAY (1933) DIRECT DESCENDANTS OWN AND LIVE ON THE ORIGINAL LAND TAKEN BY DAVID CATION.

POINT OF VIEW NEWS

Cation
Janet Isabel
Mrs. Cation Dies

As peacefully as she had spent her entire life, Mrs. Janet Isabel Dolson, widow of the late Walter J. Cation, passed to her reward Friday afternoon last at her home on the First Line. She had spent a very happy Christmas and New Years with her immediate family and relatives, but a few days ago she became ill, and although anxiety was felt, her death was quite unexpected.

The late Mrs. Cation, a daughter of the late William and Janet Dolson, two of the early settlers, was born on Lot 17, Fourth line, West Chinguacousy, and had resided where she passed away for the past forty years. During her entire life she won the love and esteem of every person who had the pleasure of making her acquaintance and her death cast a gloom over the entire community.

In religion, the late Mrs. Cation was a Presbyterian until union, when she continued her untiring work with the Cheltenham United Church, and took an active interest in the work of the different branches of the church. At the time of her passing she was a life member of the Women's Missionary Society, she having held office at different times, and also an active member of the Snelgrove Women's Institute. To mourn her passing the late Mrs. Cation is survived by three children, Mrs. W. McClure, Norman and Gordon Cation, all at home. One brother, H. A. Dolson, of Georgetown, also survives.

OFFICERS ELECTED

John B. Cation, Brampton, Is Selected as President, on Monday

Descendants of David Cation and Janet Brown, who came to the first line west of Chinguacousy Township from Auchtermurchty in Scotland 105 years ago, held their triennial reunion on Monday afternoon on the home farm, now operated by John Cation, grandson of pioneers who first cut the bush from the land under a Crown deed.

A hundred and twenty members of the clan held a sports program, luncheon and general get-together, electing the following officers: President, John B. Cation, Brampton; vice-president, Edward Cation, Brampton; secretary-treasurer, Miss Sadie Cation, Brampton.

Robert H. Caton, Toronto, 75 years of age, claimed the honor of being the oldest member of the family present, and Miss Ruth Steele, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Steele, Rodney, Ont., who came the greatest distance to the reunion, was the youngest person taking part, being only 19 months of age.

(V) Walter Cation of Snelgrove died at Guelph Hospital last night. Mr. Cation was taken to the hospital to undergo an operation, from the effects of which he could not rally. He was 84 years of age and was a native of Scotland, having been brought to Canada by his parents more than 80 years ago. Since that time he resided in this neighborhood. He was a farmer and a man who was widely known and esteemed, interested in municipal and other public matters, and possessing keen intelligence and ability. He was an elder of Brampton Presbyterian Church for upwards of 50 years. His widow and a grown up family survive him. Mr. Cation was associated with the late Neven McConnell in purchasing the property now known as Lorne Park and in establishing the same. During his long life he enjoyed the respect and good will of his neighbors and with his passing is severed almost the last link which bound the pioneer settlement together. The funeral will take place from his late residence on Thursday afternoon to Brampton Cemetery.

Snelgrove vicinity lost one of its honored residents on Wednesday, when Mr. William Cation passed away at the ripe old age of eighty-three years and some months. Mr. Cation had lived in the neighborhood for upwards of fifty years and few men in Chinguacousy were better known or more highly esteemed. Born in Scotland, he was brought to Canada by his parents when only sixteen months old. They took up land on lot 17, first line west, where Wm. Cation grew to manhood. After his marriage to Miss Christina Hall he removed to lot 19 and farmed there for a short time, later buying the farm at Snelgrove, which became the Cation homestead and where he remained until his death. Mrs. Cation died about five years ago. The sons surviving are Walter and James on the homestead, David at Mayfield, Robert and William of Toronto. Mrs. Aiken Dolson is the only daughter. Mr. Cation was a member of the Presbyterian Church at Cheltenham, attending the services there for many years past.....

CATION: David Cation died in Vancouver, B. C. He was born at Snelgrove. He went west some fifteen years ago with his wife and child, both of whom have died. Mr. Cation was a well known thresherman. Two years ago he went to Russia with the Western Railway Building Corps and returned when the work was completed. He is survived by one brother, Kenneth, and two sisters, Mrs. Thos. A. Williamson, Chinguacousy west, and Mrs. Geo. Michie, Esquesing.

NS

From Mrs. Thomas Williamson, Brampton R. R. 2.

My grandfather, Mr. David Cation was born in Fifeshire, Scotland in 1803, his wife, Jennet Brown also born in Scotland in 1793, they were married in 1828, three children were born in Scotland, Walter, in April 6, 1830, William on Sept. 19, 1831 and David on January 21, 1832. When David was just six weeks old they set sail on a sailing vessel for Canada. They encountered terrible storms. It took them 9 weeks and 3 days to reach land. All they knew was a letter they had from a gentleman who had a sister a Mrs. Taylor who lived in Chinguacousy. There was a family by the name of Wilkie on the boat, forefather of the noted John Wilkie missionary. They were coming to Hamilton and then north to friends. Both families were put off the boat between Hamilton and Oakville, dumped with all their belongings on the beach. They camped as well as they could but could find no one who could tell them where this Chinguacousy was. I guess their Scotch accent was not very plain. But one day they met a man and he told them there was no such place but asked to see their letter so they went back to camp and got the letter and he says why that's Chinguacousy and its not very far, only across the country a bit. So Mr. Cation bid them all good bye next morning and started out to find Mr. and Mrs. Taylor. He found them in a small log house on the first line west, lot 13. It took him many many days to find them, it would be a long and weary wait for the wife and mother of three small children. After days of watching and waiting Mr. John Elliott then of Brampton went with a yoke of oxen and a big box on something and which must have resembled a stoneboat, he brought the Cation to Mr. Taylor's farm where they lived all that summer. Mr. Cation bought the 100 acres on lot 17, first line West that fall. There was only one room. They had a bed and a bunk for the children but Mrs. Cation said it was a home. There was a big fireplace where the pot was swung for boiling and the Dutch oven for baking which was a big metal pot with a lid on. That was where all the bread was baked. But it was a home. All the blue sky they could see for 3 years near this wee home could be covered with the apron she wore. Mr. Cation was a weaver in Scotland and it was the wonderful tales that was told of the beautiful Canada that coaxed them to leave Scotland. Mrs. Cation worked in the small harvest fields reaping and so for small pay. Many times she got lost in the woods and once she stayed in a small stable all night before she could find her home. They gradually prospered and bought and cleared more land. Eight children were born to them.

Interment at Brampton cemetery.

William Cation.

(Obituary)

2) Dupl.
Snelgrove vicinity lost one of its honored residents on Wednesday, when Mr. William Cation passed away at the ripe old age of eighty-three years and some months. Mr. Cation had lived in the neighborhood for upwards of fifty years and few men in Chinguacousy were better known or more highly esteemed. Born in Scotland, he was brought to Canada by his parents when only sixteen months old. They took up land on lot 17, first line west, where Wm. Cation grew to manhood. After his marriage to Miss Christina Hall he removed to lot 19 and farmed there for a short time, later buying the farm at Snelgrove, which became the Cation homestead and where he remained until his death. Mrs. Cation died about five years ago. The sons surviving are Walter and James on the homestead, David at Mayfield, Robert and William of Toronto. Mrs. Aiken Dolson is the only daughter. Mr. Cation was a member of the Presbyterian Church at Cheltenham, attending the services there for many years past.....
